DARMS HAS GOOD COAL FOR COKE

Tests of coal from the Darms mine by Leon Perival Lowe, expert on gas and coke, resulted in a report that an excellent coke, harder than any coke in the west, could be had and, but for the high percentage of ash, would be classed as a metallurgical coke, a coke essential for steel plants. This drawback will be overcome in the deeper vein which the company is now sinking for which is very likely to carry much less ash content because of its greater age.

E. H. Wedekind, E. M., examined the property for Mark Wesler in 1918 and New York capitalists were satisfied with the report and, only on account of the war, and demands for money just then, $100,000 would have been available for development of this mine. L. R. Robins and O. McCrany, of the Belmont; E. B. Mills, for the Mason Valley Mines company; J. H. Hance, of the U. S. geological survey and many others have expressed themselves favorably upon the possibility of deeper veins. The Darms company is a non-assessable corporation which has already spent $40,000 in development and has a substantial steam plant with complete equipment for doing rapid work.

PEONS SHOT TO DEATH WHEN THEY TESTIFIED IN FAVOR OF JENKINS

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—Secretary Lansing will be called before the senate foreign relations committee before action is taken on the resolution by Senator Fall requesting President Wilson to sever diplomatic relations with Mexico. The committee hopes to have the secretary before it later today. The decision to call Lansing was reached after two hours session behind closed doors. Henry Fletcher, American ambassador to Mexico, gave his views on the Mexican situation to the committee.
When the committee recessed the senators said the whole situation was in an uncertain state. Democratic Leader Hitchcock said the administration senators had not taken any definite stand against the resolution but wanted the committee to be fully advised before any course was decided upon.
Senator Hitchcock introduced a substitute resolution in committee which, besides authorizing the president to break diplomatic relations with Mexico, would pledge the support of congress to him in any subsequent action he should decide upon.

Ambassador Fletcher gave the committee a graphic account of the method used by the Mexican authorities to secure evidence which they declare refutes Jenkins' statement that he was not seen at a certain place in company with the bandits prior to the kidnapping. Fletcher said the Mexicans gathered ten peons in the neighborhood and said to them:
"Jenkins was there at that time, wasn't he?"
The peons said he was not. One peon was taken outside and a rifle shot was heard. The other nine still gave a negative answer. Another was taken outside and another rifle shot was heard. When seven peons were left they admitted Jenkins was at the place at the time mentioned.

STRIKE ON BELCHER EX. CAUSES PROFIT TAKING

What is reported as one of the most significant strikes in the Divide district is reported from the Belcher Extension by E. J. Roberts, engineer in charge. In the No. 2 shaft, sunk on the long fissuring which gave surface assays of $10 to $100 for a distance of 600 feet, ore has been taken out which assays $814.57 from a 10-inch streak divided into $112 gold and $702 silver. Assay No. 2 across twenty-four inches gave $46.80 gold and $292.52 silver or an aggregate of $339.32. A 10-inch streak of high grade ran $71.20 in gold and $572.85 silver or a total value of $644.05. Picked samples went $879.27, represented by $103 gold and $776.27 silver. These assays were taken from a 20-foot hole sunk on the ledge disclosed on the surface about three weeks ago where a width of 16 to 18 inches was prospected for the entire length of the Belcher Ex and into the Thompson. A dump sample ran $67.70. The bottom of the shaft shows three feet of samples $68.
The management regards this find as one of great importance, for the ore shoot is long and continuous and looks like it is making into a tremendous orebody that may prove the largest in the Divide district.
The management has spent several thousand dollars trenching and assaying for mapping the geology and has correlated all surface and underground workings so that they should know within a few feet of where to expect the orebody to show at depth.
On the Belcher a 12-foot vein has been crosscut on the 200 level at a distance of 240 feet north of the shaft. Both walls have been cut and Engineer Roberts declares it the only true vein ever cut. The next step will be to drift west to the cross fracture which should be cut within 100 feet.
On the strength of these disclosures heavy buying orders were placed with the result that the stock advanced to 50 cents. This brought out a quantity that had been taken in around 32 cents and on the profit-taking the market softened to 44 cents at the close.

25.6 INCHES OF SNOW AT RENO

Setting a record that has not been equalled since 1889, December, 1919, with but three days of the month crossed off the calendar has a snow fall that old-timers in the year 19 or 1906 can point back to with pride. The present storm brought more snow to Reno than any one storm in the history of December and surpassed the previous snowfall record for the entire month as well.
Since Monday morning, shortly before five o'clock when the storm started up until it ended around midnight last night, 25.6 inches of snow fell at Reno and at five o'clock this morning there was 21.5 inches on the ground. Of this amount 11.5 inches fell after five o'clock yesterday evening when 12.8 inches was on the ground.
The total precipitation for this storm was 1.91 inches which is .24 of an inch above the normal for December. Since September 1 the total precipitation is 2.73 inches, which is .72 of an inch above the normal record and this is what makes the farmers, stockmen and others who watch the winter snowfall carefully smile because it is the early winter snows that mean plenty of water for late summer irrigation.
